

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
FOR MORE INFORMATION:
CONTACT: Ricardo Guinea
(713) 541-9951

Harris County Precinct Three
Bayland Community Center
6400 Bissonnet Street
Houston, Texas 77074

Bayland Community Center Presents January Events 2019

In addition to scheduled activities at the Center, Commissioner Steve Radack's Bayland Community Center is now offering the following upcoming events and activities in January 2019:

Video Cast: Ken Burns the Civil War: Episode One

Will be shown at the Bayland CC on Friday, January 18th at 12:30 p.m. Inspired by the photographs of Matthew Brady, Ken Burns produced and directed this nine episode epic documentary on the Civil War which explores the war's military, social, and political facets. It is a riveting, informative, and inspiring look at a pivotal event in the history of the United States of America, and a must see for all. Sign up is requested in person or by phone at 713-541-9951.

Elder Law

Bayland Community Center will host a presentation by the Houston Bar Association on Elder Law with Lisa Nelson, Attorney at Law, on Tuesday, January 22nd, at 11:15 a.m. Attorney Nelson will discuss and answer questions concerning Elder Law. Sign up is requested in person or by phone at 713-541-9951.

Stocks: The Nuts and Bolts

Bayland Community Center will host a presentation on "The Nuts and Bolts of Stocks" with Financial Advisor Ed Mireles on Wednesday, January 30th, at 11:15 a.m. Mr. Mireles will discuss how stocks work and answer questions you may have about the "nuts and bolts" of stocks. Sign up is requested in person or by phone at 713-541-9951.

###